1. Contract end

The hire contract about the enclosed described holiday apartment is closed obligingly if the attached enclosed hire contract has been signed of the tenant and has been shut to the renter. The holiday apartment is rented to the tenant for the given contract duration exclusively to the use for holiday purposes and may be booked only with the maximum personal number given in the hire contract.

2. Rent price and additional costs

3. Security

If the parties to a contract have agreed on a security, the tenant pays a security for fitment and equipment objects at the rate of 250 euros to the renter. The security is to be provided together with the final payment. It is refunded at the latest within 14 days after ending of the tenancy to the tenant.

4. Rent duration / inventory

On the journey day the renter provides the rent object to the tenant up from 14. 00 o'clock, or after arrangement in contract-appropriate condition. Should the tenant occur after 20. 00 o'clock, he should inform the contact on site, Mr. Figueiredo.

The tenant is asked to check the inventory located in the rent object immediately after his arrival and to inform the renter or the contact on site of any deficiencies or of damages at the latest on the day following the arrival.

An inventory is renounced.

On the departure day the tenant will hand over the rent object to the renter at the latest 10. 00 o'clock; removed in well-swept condition.

Cancellation up to the 30th day before the beginning of the rent time - no costs, afterwards and with non appearance: 90%:

The proof is left to the tenant that he has originated to the renter none or a substantially lower damage.

With the cancellation of the contract the tenant can name a spare tenant who is ready to enter at his place into the existing contractual relationship. The renter can contradict the entry of the third if this appears economically or personally unreliable. If a third enters into the hire contract, he and the present tenant to the renter stick as a joint debtor for the rent price and by the entry of the third to originating add-on costs.

The renter otherwise has to rent in good faith a not taken up lodging and must add to the account the savings thereby on the cancelation fees asserted by him.

In this case the renter can charge of the tenant replacement of the expenditures resulted up to the notice and the escaped profit.

7. Cancellation of the contract because of unusual circumstances

The hire contract can be discontinued by both sides if the fulfilment of the contract complicates or is endangered as a result of higher power which is not predictable.

Both parties to a contract become free of her contractual obligations. Nevertheless, they must already refund produced achievements for the in each case other party to a contract.

8. Duties of the tenant

The tenant obligates himself to treat the rent object together with inventory with all care. For the culpable damage of furnishings, rent rooms or the building as well as arrangements the tenant is indemnifiable if and in this respect it has been caused by him or his escorts or visitors culpably.

In the rent rooms originating damages the tenant has to notify/to report to the renter (house management, Mrs. Figueiredo) immediately.

For the secondary damages caused by not timely announcement the tenant is indemnifiable. In sink basin and toilet rubbish, cinder, injurious liquids and similar may not be thrown in or be poured. If blockage appears because of nonobservance of these regulations in the sewage pipes, the cause bears the costs of the repair.

By perhaps appearing disturbances in arrangements and facilities of the rent object the tenant is obliged to do even all reasonable to contribute to a removal of the disturbance or perhaps to hold originating damage low. The tenant is obliged to inform the renter or if necessary the house management about defects of the rent thing immediately. If the tenant omits from this announcement, no claims are entitled to him because of non-fulfilment of the achievements according to contract (in particular no claims to rent decrease).
